1. Collection and use of personal data

a. Purpose of processing and legal basis

The Company will collect your personal data (which may include sensitive personal data) and will process your personal data for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. This includes for example, contacting you about job opportunities, assessing your suitability for those opportunities, updating our databases, putting you forward for job opportunities, arranging payments to you and developing and managing our services and relationship with you and our clients.

If you have opted-in we may also send you marketing information and news via email/ text. You can opt-out from receiving these at any time by clicking “unsubscribe” when you receive these communications from us.

In some cases we may be required to use your data for the purpose of investigating, reporting and detecting crime and also to comply with laws that apply to us. We may also use your information during the course of internal audits to demonstrate our compliance with certain industry standards.

We must have a legal basis to process your personal data. The legal bases we rely upon to offer our work-finding services to you are:

- Your consent
- Where we have a legitimate interest
- To comply with a legal obligation that we have
- To fulfil a contractual obligation that we have with you

b. Legitimate interest

This is where the Company has a legitimate reason to process your data provided it is reasonable and does not go against what you would reasonably expect from us. Where the Company has relied on a legitimate interest to process your personal data our legitimate interests is/are as follows:

- Managing our database and keeping work-seeker records up to date;
- Providing work-finding services to you and our clients;
- Contacting you to seek your consent where we need it;
- Giving you information about similar products or services that you have used from us recently;
- Paying workers correctly and on time

c. Statutory/contractual requirement

The Company has certain legal and contractual requirements to collect personal data (e.g. to comply with the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, immigration and tax legislation, and in some circumstances safeguarding requirements.) Our clients may also require this personal data, and/or we may need your data to enter into a contract with you. If you do not give us personal data we need to collect we may not be able to continue to provide work-finding services to you, or meet our legal and regulatory obligations.

d. Right to Audit

Our clients have the right to audit the personal data we collect, to ensure that we comply with all legal and contractual requirements. Your personal data (which could include sensitive categories of personal data) will be shared with clients that you have been engaged with, and their third-party auditors. Data will include (but is not limited too): References and Employment History; Criminal Record Checks; Identity and Right to Work; Professional Registration and Qualifications, Training, Fitness to Work and any other information relevant as part of my registration and Client engagement, including Payslips, Application and Interview Forms

e. Recipients of data

The Company will process your personal data and/or sensitive personal data with the following recipients:

- Clients (whom we may introduce or supply you to)
- Third-party Auditors engaged by our Clients
- Former employers whom we may seek references from
- Payroll service providers who manage payroll on our behalf or other payment intermediaries whom we may introduce you to
- Other recruitment agencies in the supply chain
- Screening service provider to process pre-employment checks, police check and identity checks
- Occupational Health service providers to review and issue Fit to Work certification

2. Information to be provided when data collected not from the data subject

Categories of data: The Company has collected the following personal data on you:

Personal data:

- Name, address, mobile number, email
- National insurance no. and P45
- Nationality (through right to work check)
- Professional body registrations
- Work, Education, training and qualifications history
- Bank details
- Professional Referees
- Dates and times available to work

Sensitive personal data:

- Health information including whether you have a disability;
- Criminal conviction;
- Personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin;
- Personal data revealing religious or philosophical beliefs;
- Personal data revealing trade union membership;
- Biometric data (where used for identification purposes);
- Data concerning a person's sexual orientation.

Source of the personal data: The Company sourced your personal data/sensitive personal data:

- From CV-Library, Indeed, Reed.co.uk, TotalJobs, our own website, LinkedIn and other UK based job boards
- A former employer
- A referee whose details you previously provided to us
- Software providers who we use to support our services including Microsoft, IQX, Vincere and Cognito Forms
- Cookies listed in section 7

Information is sourced from both publicly accessible sources, and sources which are not publicly accessible.

3. Overseas Transfers

The Company may transfer the information you provide to us to countries outside the European Economic Area ('EEA') for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. We will take steps to ensure adequate protections are in place to ensure the security of your information. The EEA comprises the EU member states plus Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein.

4. Data retention

The Company will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary for the purpose we collect it. Different laws may also require us to keep different data for different periods of time. For example, the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require us to keep work-seeker records for at least one year from (a) the date of their creation or (b) after the date on which we last provide you with work-finding services.

We must also keep your payroll records, holiday pay, sick pay and pensions auto-enrolment records for as long as is legally required by HMRC and associated national minimum wage, social security and tax legislation. This is currently 3 to 6 years.

Where the Company has obtained your consent to process your personal and sensitive personal data, we will do so in line with our retention policy. Upon expiry of that period the Company will seek further consent from you. Where consent is not granted the Company will cease to process your personal and sensitive personal data.

5. Your rights

Please be aware that you have the following data protection rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right of access to the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right to rectification of your personal data;
- The right to erasure of your personal data in certain circumstances;
- The right to restrict processing of your personal data;
- The right to data portability in certain circumstances;
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data that was based on a public or legitimate interest;
- The right not to be subjected to automated decision making and profiling; and
- The right to withdraw consent at any time.

Where you have consented to the Company processing your personal and sensitive personal data you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time by contacting Kevin Thomas in writing at Staff Partners, Widbury Barns, Widbury Hill, Ware SG12 7QE. Please note that if you withdraw your consent to further processing that does not affect any processing done prior to the withdrawal of that consent, or which is done according to another legal basis.

There may be circumstances where the Company will still need to process your data for legal or official reasons. Where this is the case, we will tell you and we will restrict the data to only what is necessary for those specific reasons.

If you believe that any of your data that the Company processes is incorrect or incomplete, please contact us using the details above and we will take reasonable steps to check its accuracy and correct it where necessary.

You can also contact us using the above details if you want us to restrict the type or amount of data we process for you, access your personal data or exercise any of the other rights listed above.

6. Cookies
